

Trout Steak Revival will be at your McComb/Bruchs Performing Arts Center in Wautoma, WI on Saturday March 21st at 7:00 pm. This performance is sponsored by Antique Liquor & Video, Lynda Parman & Kyle McReath at American Family Insurance, Culvers of Wautoma, Farmers State Bank, Grimm's Sports Bar & Grill, Heid Music, The Berlin Journal, Martz Insurance, WDUX Radio and Wisconsin Public Radio.

Defined more by expressive songwriting and heartfelt harmonies rather than any one genre, Trout Steak Revival crosses over and blends the bounds of folk, indie, bluegrass, and roots evoking its own style of Americana. With four band members all contributing unique lyrics, lead vocals, acoustic instrumentation, and harmonies, Trout Steak Revival delivers memorable tunes to an energetic fanbase that grows hand-in-hand with the band.

The four current members include Bevin Foley (Colorado native - Fiddle, Voice), Casey Houlihan (Kenosha, WI native - Bass, Voice), Will Koster (Michigan/Colorado native - Dobro, Guitar, Voice) and Travis McNamara (New York/Michigan native - Banjo, Voice).

Trout Steak Revival released their fifth studio album, "The Light We Bring," on January 31st to critical fanfare as well as wide audience acceptance. The American Songwriter Magazine mentioned that "the group made the choice to self-produce the album and cast intentional efforts to summon camaraderie in the studio that reflected the practices on the road. Locked in as both the artists and producer, Trout Steak Revival relied on themselves to deliver an album that was genuine in both its creation and presentation."

Tickets, $32, to Trout Steak Revival are available at the McComb/Bruchs Performing Arts Center located at 514 S. Cambridge St., Wautoma. The box office is staffed two weeks before the performance, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., beginning Monday, March 9th and four hours before the performance on Saturday March 21st.
